§ 215-68. Penalties for offenses. [Amended 10-22-2007; 3-23-2009]

- A. Violation of this chapter shall be punishable by any of the following or combination thereof:
- (1) Imprisonment for not more than 30 days.
 - (2) Actual cost of the work performed to bring property into compliance.
 - (3) A fine of not more than $1,000.
 - (4) A conditional discharge.
 - (5) An unconditional discharge.
- B. For the purpose of this section, each day that an offense occurs shall be deemed to be a separate offense and shall be punishable by any of the above remedies or combination thereof for each day that the property remains in violation.
- C.. Any person who shall neglect to cut and remove weeds, grass or other vegetation as directed in this chapter, who shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of any notices herein provided, or who shall resist or obstruct the Code Enforcement Officer in the cutting and removing of weeds, grass and other vegetation, or grading, if necessary, shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, and each day on which said violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.
- D.. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, violations of provisions of this chapter, except as outlined above, shall be punishable as follows: Upon a determination of guilt by the City Court Judge of a violation of any provision of this chapter, the fine shall not be less than $125 for a first offense, not be less than $250 for a second offense within a three-hundred-sixty-five-day period following the initial determination of violation and not be less than $500 for a third or subsequent offense within a three-hundred-sixty-five-day period following the initial determination of violation, which fine shall not be suspended, waived or otherwise reduced below these amounts.
